AWANA RECORDS. ANYWHERE. ANYTIME

Streamline recordkeeping tasks on club night. Using the AWdb Web App, club secretaries can easily spread the workload by enabling leaders/listeners to use their smart phone, tablet, Mac, or Windows PC to record clubber attendance and mark completed sections. Access your club data 24/7, from anywhere you have an internet connection.

NO INTERNET? NO PROBLEM.

The Windows Desktop App allows multiple users to operate in a non-networked situation using the Club Check-out/Check-in features and one or more USB flash drives.

KEY FEATURES:

- A user-friendly and intuitive interface gives you a high-level view of your club's data and lets you drill-down quickly to the details
- Powerful grids with sorting, filtering, grouping, printing and exporting capabilities
- A wide variety of formal reports that may be previewed, printed, or exported to external file formats such as: Excel, RTF, HTML, and PDF
- A household relationship structure makes it easy for you to see and work with all persons in a household. No more redundant data-entry!
- A customizable Registration Form pre-filled with data on all members of each household
- A check-in screen that makes it easy to update weekly check-in and progress information with all points and awards being calculated automatically
- Inventory tracking system integrated with automatic awards generation and ordering
- New Year Setup feature that gets you ready for the next club year in just minutes
- Multi-user functionality over a network, or via the Check-out/Check-in module that allows users to use separate non-networked PCs and have their data imported back into the Primary database
- The Desktop Edition may be run directly from a USB flash drive for maximum portability
- The Cloud Edition allow multiple simultaneous users to access/add/edit data from their smart phone, tablet, Mac, or Windows PC

With AWdb YOU CAN:

- Easily transition from inefficient paper-based recordkeeping to a powerful multi-user cloud database
- Perform tasks vital to club administration more accurately and in much less time
- View, analyze, and work with your data in ways that are nearly impossible with paper records
